WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 5, 1897.

No. 1.

HON. JOHN P. GREEN.

HON. JOHN P. GREEN.

This coming appointment from the State of Ohio will be ex-State Senator John P. Green. Mr. Green is the greatest colored man in the State and is known and respected by the most influential men in his State. President McKinley could not have selected a better man as the representative of the colored republicans in Ohio. The appointment of Mr. Green may be expected at any time.

THEY SAY.

The boys are in the soup.
Be truthful in all things.
It was a holiday Monday.

There was a singing picnic at Glen Echo Monday.

It was very quiet indeed.

It is enjoyment without music.

Don't forget what has been said to you.

A still tongue often shows you up as a fool.

The colored man wants manhood.

Don't delay when danger is ahead.

The politicians are still hanging around, office seeking.

Candidates for foreign office have gotten down to their size.

Applicants for United States Consuls are now applicants for positions in the Library.

Anything will do from a laborer's job to a hod carrier.

Col. Pledger will not go to Jamaica.

Bishop Arnett will inspect our colored appointments.

He has so reported to a prominent colored Pennsylvania politician.

When white men leave to all negroes to select their own representatives there will be no mistake made.

Eight colored men are to go in the Consular service and the Bishop is to inspect them all.

The Bishop had better inspect his Bible and see if there is anything in it that says, attend to your own business.

He will undoubtedly see something that will not be very pleasant to busybodies.

The Baltimore politician is doing the right thing.

He means to do what is right.

If you think you know it all, don't be fool enough to say so.

Attend to your own business is all that you can do.

If you think all that glitters is gold, you are mistaken.

Be what you seem to be and nothing more.

Don't change your faces from that which nature gave you.

It is the great man who does great things.

It is the noble man who does noble deeds.

Be useful to yourself and true to your friends.

Don't be alarmed when you are doing your duty.

There are many sick hearts in this country.

The politician is the worst of all.

The colored man will organize.

He will do his duty this fall and the Presidential election of 1900 will tell.

The days are dark for the colored politician.

E. P. McCabe is a fighter.

Col. James Hill has knocked out his enemies.

Col. Hill is a fighter and a politician.

Louisiana is in a muddle.

There are six factions.

What the out-come will be, no one knows.

District politicians are hoping.

Hope on boys, hope on.

You should not be untrue to those who have befriended you.

There is to be a shaken up of dry bones.

Don't say a word the boys are still coming to Washington.

E. M. Hewlett for judge of the Police Court.

The civil rights case will come to a focus soon.

Judge Kimball means business.

What does negro emancipation mean?

Is there any bravery in the negro?

SPECIAL NOTICE.

There are regular Authorized Collectors in the employ of THE BEE Printing Co., and when they call to see delinquent subscribers they are requested to pay them, and not give the excuse that "they will see the Editor." The Editor has no time to see the subscribers, and it is hoped that his friends and the patrons of THE BEE will pay the Collector when he calls.

SELF-CONSTITUTED.

The greatest drawback to the colored people of this country is what is known as self-constituted leadership. This leadership ingratiates itself into the good wishes of administrative powers by toadyism and by playing the role of an apologist. In another column of this paper will be seen what a representative of the A. M. E. Church has to say relative to the authority that has been delegated to him, as he alleges, by the President of the United States.

THE BEE is confident that President McKinley has not delegated any such authority to the Bishop. The colored people of this country do not recognize any leadership. They prefer to select their own men to represent them. The great mistake that politicians, now in authority, make is to thrust men upon the people the masses do not want. If the colored people had been consulted there would have been no national scandals in some of our district offices.

The colored citizens of Maryland would be in better condition than what they are now, had their wishes been consulted concerning colored appointments.

When a man informs the President that he represents the entire colored race in the United States and that a representative southern appointment will satisfy the entire race in the south, he states what is not true and the colored man will resent it.

If Bishop Arnett would only attend to his church duties and allow the state representatives to speak for their people, he would be doing what is right.

SELF CONSTITUTED LEADER.

HE IS TO PASS UPON ALL COLORED PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS.—REAL RACE LEADERS NOT IN IT.

The Rev. Bishop B. W. Arnett, representing the A. M. E. Church and A. M. E. candidates for office and all other applicants in the United States, was in the city last week for the purpose of landing his son and to inspect the applications of all colored candidates for office. Bishop Arnett of the A. M. E. Church, in conversation with a representative colored politician and a lawyer of distinction in the State of Pennsylvania said:

"Yes, sir, I am just from the White House, I saw President McKinley and I want to say to you that the President informed me that he intends to make eight or ten appointments of colored men in the Consular service, and I am to inspect all of them and decide whether they are the proper men to appoint." No appointment, continued Bishop Arnett "of a colored man to a Presidential office will be made without my indorsement. All papers of colored applicants are referred to me."

THE BEE cannot believe for a moment that President McKinley informed the Bishop, who is a self constituted leader, that he is to pass upon all colored applicants to the consular and diplomatic service before they are appointed. The many hundred thousand colored voters in this country who have constituencies behind them will not tolerate the gall and impudence of Bishop Arnett.

Bishop Arnett some time ago made the remark that he is the man who will run the colored end of this administration. He arrogated to himself the appointment of Recorder Cheatham, but he had no more to do with his appointment than the dead King Kallukau, who was once so famous as a ruler of the Hawaiian Islands.

THREE RESIGNED.

There are three vacancies in the trustee board of Howard University and in a very few days the remaining trustees will elect three new men to fill these vacancies. This is a negro institution or it is supposed to be, but it seems that the negroes are in the minority.

Will the colored trustees on the board have the nerve to name three reputable colored men for these places? Will they allow Dr. Rankin to dictate to them? Are the colored trustees, on the board, subjected to Dr. Rankin's orders? We have had enough of the present incumbent of Howard University and think it is time for the colored trustees of Howard University to see to it that one of their number is made president of that institution.

The people will watch the coming election with vigilant eyes.

THE PERSONAL LIBERTY LEAGUE.

PROGRESS OF THE ORGANIZATION.
THE OBJECT OF THE ORGANIZATION
THE NEXT ANNUAL DINNER AND COLLATION IN HONOR EDITOR CHASE.

Among the many organizations in this country there is none that has made the progress and advancement as the National Colored Personal Liberty League, which was organized May 15, 1892 in this city and officiated by H. C. Hawkins, president; J. H. Perkins, of Kansas, vice-president; Charles B. Jones, secretary; M. L. Campbell, district treasurer; and Charles C. Curtis, of Iowa, national organizer.

The membership numbers over 5000, representing every state in the Union. It is strictly a non-partisan organization and its objects and aims are to promote personal liberty in all things, so far as consistent with the laws of the negro throughout the country. That man shall be permitted to eat and drink what he pleases, act as he deems best, in all things without the interference of any one. On Tuesday evening June 15th Mr. W. Calvin Chase, editor of THE BEE, and attorney for the organization, will be the guest of the evening. This collation is given in honor of the editor in Moore and Prior's dining rooms, 1216 Penn. avenue, northwest at 8 o'clock. Covers will be laid for 100.

Attorney L. W. Palles has been selected as toastmaster. The table will occupy both dining rooms of this well known buffet and the well-known reputation of Messrs. Moore and Prior in preparing a collation is too well known for comment. Toast will be responded to by some of the most distinguished young men in this city. The full program will be published next week.

NO RING CANDIDATE WANTED

There is a movement on foot among society people in this community to influence the trustees to appoint one of their number musical director in the schools over Prof. J. T. Layton, who is entitled to the place. The people are in favor of Prof. Layton and they think he should be appointed.

THE BEE as well as the people will oppose the appointment of any ring candidate in the schools as a music teacher. Our High and Normal Schools are in need of a reorganization and new teachers placed at the head of these two schools.

It is strange that the trustees of the public schools can make it convenient to appoint out siders to positions in our schools and cannot find places for our Normal School graduates. Why was it that Mrs. Alice Strange Davis, formerly of Baltimore, Md., was conveniently appointed by Dr. Shadd and Mrs. Terrell? The latter trustee thought it was an insult to her dignity because she was asked to assist a worthy Normal School graduate. There is to be a change in the trustees in June and then perhaps they will know something

16 YEARS OLD TODAY.

THE BEE, today enters into its 16th year. It has seen its ups and downs. Let its future course speak for itself.

SOCIAL EQUALITY.

WHITE LADIES (?) IN DANGER.—ARISE SOUTH—THE NEGRO MAMMAS WHOSE BREASTS YOU SUCKED AND ARE STILL SUCKING DEMAND SOCIAL EQUALITY. LET US WHITE PEOPLE TEACH THE NEGRO HIS PLACE. LET US WHITE PEOPLE CEASE SUCKING.

Mr. O. W. Blacknall, of Kittrell, N. C., writing to the Raleigh News, and Observer has this to say relative to social equality among the whites in Kittrell, N. C. Among other things he says:

"Although the railroad waiting room at this place set apart for negroes is the larger, more convenient and more comfortable of the two, the negroes of the Kittrell Institute are making persistent and determined efforts to invade the one set apart for white people. Before the waiting rooms, now just opened, were finished, John R. Hawkins, the secretary, ex-principal and moving spirit of the institute, wrote to Captain Whisnant, the superintendent of this division of the Seaboard Air Line, urging that one room be set apart for ladies and one room for gentlemen. This was, of course, tantamount to urging that the white ladies of this vicinity should be forced to occupy the same waiting room and be crowded and jostled by the negro girls from the institute, as they have repeatedly been treated on the streets of the town, white ladies even while giving half the sidewalk having on several occasions been knocked into the gutter. Captain Whisnant, very properly, refused to depart from the custom of the road and force an indignity on the white people of Kittrell. Nevertheless, last week the institute negroes invaded the white waiting room in force, and that, too, before the colored waiting room was filled, although the session having just closed a good many of the pupils were at the station to take the cars. Great annoyance was caused to the Rev. Mr. Averitt and his wife, who happened to be in the white waiting room. It was only after great exertion that the railroad agent succeeded in getting the negroes out. Threats were made by the negroes that they will yet have the waiting room or kill."

Now as to this negro, John R. Hawkins, who has evidently fomented the whole trouble. He is the same man who some years back from the hustings at this place incited the negroes to strive for social equality or worse by reciting how at the north, where his race had their rights, he had escorted white ladies about and so on ad nauseum. Seven years or more have passed since then and Hawkins, fearing the loss of the contributions of the white people of his school, has long been more guarded and covert in his methods, but that speech still survives as an agent of evil in the minds of the negroes.

This institution receives considerable aid from the white people of the south. Now I call upon every white man, south or north, opposed to social equality, to refuse support or countenance to a seminary of such pernicious principles. If they do not refuse, then let the decent people of the country repudiate them.

Efforts will doubtless be made to gloss over this matter and to disprove the inculcation of any such principles. I give the facts as they are. That Hawkins' social equality speech, his abolition all race distinction at this place, the rude jostlings that ladies of the town have received at the hands of the institute girls, the refusal of the institute negroes—Hawkins and others in authority being present—to vacate the white waiting room, are the outcome of the spirit and animus of the school are evident.

And now a word as to the great importance of the battle being fought, and must ever fight against social equality. Without aid or sympathy from the white race at large we are fighting its most important battle—a battle for the purity of the race—for our branch of it first, for all of it in the end.

The determination of the southern whites to resist every move, be it ever so slight, towards social equality, is the result of one of the most wholesome instincts that nature has implanted in the human heart. It is an instinct which goes good and only good, to both sexes. It is the first step that counts. The thin edge of the wedge always enters first, but the head and whole bulk always follows.

Social equality could have but one end—an end very far off using the span of individual life as a mete-wind, but all too near in the life-time of a race. That end would be miscegenation, amalgamation, a union of races—the conversion of the southern Anglo-Saxon into a mongrel breed, more inert, more depraved than the mongrel denizens of Central or South America. I say more inert, more depraved, because on no hybrid has nature set a seal of approval as upon the mulatto. Immediate physical and moral deterioration is the almost inevitable result.

This is and must ever remain a vital, a paramount question with us. The northern can better afford to flout it. There are comparatively few negroes with him. No flood of pollution beats and chafes at its barriers eager to engulf his posterity. The danger which a threat to the whole nation is vastly more remote to him than to us.

Follow white men of North Carolina and of the south! Is it not high time that we had an understanding with this son of Ham in our midst—the alien who celebrates the Anniversary of Appomattox, who rejoices over our sorrows and sorrow over our rejoicing? We are two to his one. His destiny is in our hands. He can educate his children only by our largess. His very franchise he holds only by our suffrage.

He must be made to understand that we have that power and that there is an extremity in which we will use it. Not to oppress him; not to deprive him of any right; not to deprive him of any privilege even, except the one that will work his damnation and our own—social equality.

URGE MODERATION.

Woolen Manufacturers Oppose High Duties on Wool.

Some of the severest criticisms not only of special duties and clauses, but of the whole accused protective system, come from the protected manufacturers themselves in their struggle with opposing interests. Mr. S. N. D. North, secretary of the Woolen Manufacturers' association, is now and always has been a staunch protectionist. As such he believes that the 70,000,000 consumers of this country are legitimate subjects for plunder and that the manufacturers are the proper persons to enjoy the protection plunder.

The free wool experiment which we have been trying for three years, besides being an object lesson in the way of cheap woollens, has taught the woolen manufacturers that they can make as much or more profit with free wool and moderate protection, which permits people of moderate means to wear real woolen goods, than with high duties on both wool and woollens which restrict the use of woollens to people in good circumstances. The manufacturers therefore display more in their usual modesty and patriotism in the advice which they are giving to congress. Mr. North is in Washington to voice the manufacturers' patriotism. Here is part of his advice as taken from the Washington correspondence of the Dry Goods Economist:

I am free to say the bill is far from satisfactory to the woolen manufacturers. The chief fault is to be found with the raw wool duties, which are so high that our manufacturers will find themselves sorely embarrassed. It is true the committee has provided compensatory duties which are probably sufficient to offset the duties on raw wool, but the difficulty will be, in my opinion, that the very considerable increase in price which must be made to cover the additional cost of raw material will have the effect of cutting down consumption to an extent that will be disastrous to the manufacturers. I do not contend that the rates on woolen manufactures in the bill are not sufficient to protect us against too severe foreign competition, but the limit of the consumer's purchasing power must control him in buying woolen manufactures, and I fear the rates of the new bill will very materially restrict consumption.

This is practically saying to Dingley, Aldrich and the other servants of the protected manufacturers at Washington:

"Go slow with your high duties and don't try to protect too many. If you let everybody into the protection ring, there will be nobody outside to prey upon and we will have to prey upon each other. Don't make the mistake of taxing raw material too high. We wouldn't mind it if we could sell our goods and charge the tax over to the consumer. But when the tax is so high that we have to make our prices almost out of sight we have found that we cannot sell so many goods because the people can't afford to wear clothes that is, woolen clothes, which are the only ones worth considering, because they are the only ones which we manufacture. Our solicitude for the dear American consumer is such that we do not wish to compel him to clothe himself in the skins of beasts, which are neither fashionable nor healthful. Let us not tax him to death. Let us be reasonable and encourage him to live and wear clothes. By so doing we can keep our mills running and give employment to American workmen at American wages, which, after all, is the chief object aimed at by us protected manufacturers."—Byron W. Holt.

The following is a part of ex-congressman John De Witt Warner's criticism of the Dingley bill:

"As it stands the most brilliant part of the pending performance consists in eating the words of the same actors in the Fifty-first congress. The McKinley bill of that date was virtually entitled 'a bill to reduce revenues.' The Dingley bill is specially commended as a revenue getter. The McKinley bill pointed with pride to the poor man's free breakfast table. The Dingley bill puts upon sugar—a single item of the breakfast table—one-third of the total amount of the tariff tax proposed. The items which are supposed to help the farmer are good examples of so setting your trap as to 'catch 'em a-cumin' and a-gwine.' For instance, we have reciprocity in order to give the farmers a market abroad for what it is assumed they cannot produce for home consumption unless they are highly protected, as is done by another section of the bill."

Senator Sherman at His Best.

Every advance toward a free exchange of commodities is an advance in civilization. Every obstruction to a free exchange is born of the same narrow, despotic spirit which planted castles upon the Rhine to plunder peaceful commerce. Every obstruction to commerce is a tax upon consumption. Every facility to a free exchange cheapens commodities, increases trade and population and promotes civilization.—John Sherman in 1868.

Retraction for Campaign Funds. In the opinion of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, "the most retroactive feature of the Dingley bill is the provision for paying back to the big manufacturers their campaign contributions."

THE NEW SUGAR SCANDAL.

Editorial Opinion of Legislation for Trusts.

Is the country to be afflicted with a second sugar scandal? Are the "sugar lords" from Havemeyer's ex-officio members of the finance committee, and are they to be permitted to dictate the important sugar schedule?—Chicago Evening Post (Ind. Rep.).

The senate committee's bill, whether designed to do so or not, will give the trust a great advantage should it become a law. For that reason the country is bitterly opposed to the senate sugar schedule, and if the senate schedule will not be embraced in the new tariff.—Indianapolis Journal (Rep.).

The storm over the sugar schedule is steadily increasing. All the examinations which have been made since its report, instead of clearing it up, only make it look the blacker. It has apparently been made of a very complicated character to baffle analysis and to disguise a job, but, intricate as it is, it does not conceal the fact that it embraces a very large differential for the benefit of the trust. This conviction is universal, and it is aggravated by the stories of personal profit in connection with it.—Philadelphia Press (Rep.).

The specific charge by a responsible newspaper in Chicago that three members of the senate speculated in the secrets of the committee room after the sugar schedule on the senate tariff bill had been framed, and profited $30,000 by the transaction, is altogether too serious to be treated by the senate with contempt or indifference.

The peculiar influence which the magnates of the sugar trust have exerted in the framing of the new sugar schedule has already created suspicion as to the integrity of the framers of the bill. If the charge against the alleged speculators shall not be investigated, it will serve to strengthen, if not confirm, this suspicion.—Philadelphia Bulletin (Rep.).

Revising the Sugar Schedule.

This cartoon is from the New York Press, one of the most partisan of republican newspapers, which always advocates protection to any and every industry. Like hundreds of other republican papers, its disgust at the action of Aldrich in writing the sugar schedule at the dictation of the trust is so great that it is daily denouncing the sugar schedule and the senate committee's method of doing business.

Who Pays the Tax?

The republican claim that "the foreigner pays the tax" is amply proved by the following letter, which will appeal to the people of Nebraska and Iowa, as it interests them particularly: Omaha, April 10.—The Albion Milling Company, Neb.—Gentlemen: Assuming your inquiry of the 7th inst. The explanation of the recent marked advance in the price of burial bags is in the prospective changes in the tariff. Under the Wilson bill they are on the free list, but the Dingley bill provides for a duty which will amount to something over one cent per bag on the 66-inch eight-ounce burial. The price made you on your recent invoice is the lowest which we can offer on the present market. Yours truly, Bemis Omaha Bag Company.

The consumers of burial bags who live in this section of the country need not imagine that the increased price of bags concerns them. The foreigner has to pay it.

Congressman "Champ" Clark, in his speech on the Dingley tariff bill, said "the passage of the bill will force every merchant in the land to make a tariff for revenue only speech every time he sells a bill of goods across the counters."

The Above Letter is only one of the tariff speeches referred to by the eloquent and witty Missouri congressman.—World-Herald.

Pettigrew's Amendment.

Senator Pettigrew has introduced an amendment to the Dingley bill which provides for the admission free of duty of articles controlled by trusts. Should it become law and be carried out honestly how much revenue would the bill yield? There are trusts in sugar, coal, window and plate glass, lumber, pottery, wall paper, rubber, cutlery and in nearly all kinds of hardware. There is no trust in tea, but that is probably because there has been no duty to encourage it. There are also trusts in the woolen and cotton industries. Revenue will be scarce if such a law should be enforced. But will those elected by trust funds destroy the system which fosters trusts? They may pass some such law, as they did the Sherman anti-trust law in 1890, but it will be only another dummy.

The Altrish's Mysterious Voyage.

The alrship that was launched in Nashville last week has disappeared from sight, but from accounts of "reliably reliable observers" it was last seen heading for Canada. Intimations are thrown out that after taking on an assorted cargo of dutiable goods the ship will recross the line and land its cargo in some quiet spot far from the reach of custom house officers. In regard to such a cargo it would be extremely difficult to apply Secretary Gage's circular of instructions for the retroactive section of the Dingley bill.—Philadelphia Record.

LIGHTS OF THE LEGAL PROFESSION.

GRADUATING EXERCISES OF THE HOWARD LAW SCHOOL.

The commencement exercises of the law department of Howard University, classes of '97, took place last Monday evening at the First Congregational Church, 10th and G streets northwest, which was crowded to overflowing with friends of the graduates and of the university.

Rev. Dr. J. E. Rankin, president of the university, presided. Others on the platform were Prof. B. F. Leighton, A. A. Birney, John M. Harlan of the United States Supreme Court, Justices C. C. Cole, Francis Wayland, W. B. Richards, George Francis Williams, M. N. Richardson, James F. Bundy and the members of the graduating and post-graduate classes.

After music by Hoffman's Orchestra and an invocation by Dr. J. A. Johnson, the address to the graduates was delivered by Benjamin Butterworth, commissioner of patents.

Mr. Butterworth gave the young gentlemen of the graduating class advice touching the duties and responsibilities cast upon them as lawyers. He gave a large class there as many are anxious to learn the art.

Miss Annie E. Washington of Philadelphia will teach her first class in art in Flushing, New York. She will make a good teacher.

The Pictorial exhibition given last Wednesday night by Mrs. Mary E. Robinson's class in art at the A. M. E. Zion Church in Jersey City, N. J., was a success. The pictures were artistically painted and well displayed which reflected much on her as a teacher. The exercises were grand.

Miss Annie E. Hurdle is meeting with success teaching at St. Marks' M. E. Church on 53rd street, New York. Her class is doing some fine work.

Miss Eliza J. Luckey is now teaching a nice class in art at the A. M. E. Zion Church, cor. 10th Ave. and W. Bleeker street, N. Y.

Miss Sallie N. Jett will open an art school in Brooklyn, N. Y. at Bethany Baptist Church at the corner of Atlantic and Vanderbilt Ave.

All the lectures being delivered by Mr. W. C. O. Jacques in New York and Brooklyn are being largely attended and at each lecture he succeeds in organizing a nice class.

HORN, THE TAILOR.

Michael O'Day was convinced that Horn the tailor could do just what he said. If Michael O'Day thought so, he got Horn to make him one of those $15 suits to order after the persuasion of his wife. Mrs. O'Day is more than pleased. She is satisfied that Horn the tailor can make an ugly man look handsome. If the patrons of THE BEE will look on the picture that was taken last week's BEE and the one in the above cut, they can readily see that Horn the tailor gives you no bluff. The above cut represents a quick transformation from the ridiculous to the sublime. Mr. Horn does not ask you to take his word. All he asks is to give him a call and be convinced for yourselves.

If you are not satisfied with his $10 and $15 suits of clothes he will refund your money. What more can you expect? Can you get the same inducement from any other clothing house in the city? Can you have your clothes made from imported goods at the low price that Horn the tailor offers you? You must first be convinced before you go elsewhere that Horn cannot give you satisfaction. Of course some people will give you imitation goods, but they will not guarantee them. If Horn's goods are not as he represents them to be, he is willing to forfeit $200. You can call for a sample of his goods and carry them to your own tailor, and if he can prove what Horn says is incorrect, you can demand $50 in gold.

Are you in need of a summer suit? Do you want a first-class flannel suit cheaper than any house in the city can make you one? If you do, why go to Horn's place, 637 F street, N. W., and have your measure taken. You can select any kind of suit you want from a thousand new samples. New samples are received daily. This is the only up-to-date house in the city. His samples are as fresh as daily laid eggs.

If you want a full dress suit, Horn is the man you should have to make it. Give him a trial, if nothing more. If you don't believe that the people have gone crazy on Horn, just read the next week's issue of THE BEE.

Michael O'Day is so jealous of John O'Day's suit that he is about to but out his brains. Horn knows how to please. This is the reason other merchants as well as some people want to butt their brains out, because he knows how to please. His number is 637 F street, N. W.

TRUSTEE CHEATHAM.

The selection of recorder H. P. Cheatham as one of the trustees of Shaw University is a wise one. Mr. Cheatham is a man of great executive ability and a thorough race man. The trustees of Howard University could not make a better selection than Mr. Cheatham as one of the trustees of that institution. The south is entitled to more recognition on that board.

SUMMER HOMES AND RESORTS.

The Southern Railway is the first of our great railway systems to give information to the public and to fix low excursion rates for a summer outing good for return until October 31, by issuing, with usual promptness, its Summer Home and Resort Book.

It is handsome in design and artistic in every respect, having thirty-six beautifully illustrated pages, containing the most complete and conveniently arranged information, calculated to answer fully and satisfactorily every question likely to be propounded, such as routes and distances, hotels and boarding houses, names of proprietors, how to reach them, rates of board by day, week, and month, etc.

The Southern offers a choice of mountain and seaside resorts, the surf bathing and sea breezes of some of the most delightful resorts on the Atlantic Coast or the cool mountain breezes of Swannanoa, Asheville, Lookout Mountain and others 2,500 feet above the sea level.

For copy of guide call at office of any prominent coupon agent or send 2-cent stamp to L. S. Brown, General Agent, Washington, D. C.

NO MISTAKE.

From the Michigan Representative. We have failed to hear any unkind criticism of Recorder Cheatham. The President's selection must, indeed, be a wise one.

RECORDER CHEATHAM.

Recorder of Deeds Cheatham is a wise politician. He knows how to please many people with a little patronage. He is introducing such reforms in his office that will command the respect and consideration of the entire bar association of this District. It is rumored that he intends to employ more male clerks in his department. This is a good move on his part and no doubt will bring to him that force and power that will do some good.

Hon. James H. Young of Raleigh, N. C., editor of the Gazette, and one of the most brilliant young men in the state, was in the city this week and called on recorder Cheatham and other departments. It can be readily seen that Mr. Young is a man of push and nerve. He left for home Friday.

Editor W. Calvin Chase has been invited to deliver the Emancipation day oration at Frederick, Md., August 1st.

CIVIL RIGHTS CASE.

LAWYER T. L. JONES DEFENDS HIS SUIT. THE DEFENSE FORCES THE PROSECUTING OFFICER TO SPEAK.

Henry Brunhaus, a white man who keeps an eating saloon at the corner of 6th and La. avenue, N. W., was arrested some time ago and was placed on trial in the Police Court, before Judge Kimball, on last Wednesday for violating the Act of June 10, 1873, in refusing to accommodate Mr. T. L. Jones a colored attorney with something to eat, in his dining saloon.

Brunhaus demanded a jury trial which was tried in the upper branch of the Police Court on last Wednesday. Mr. Jones testified that on the morning of May 5 he entered the eating saloon kept by Brunhaus and seated himself at a table and called for a cup of tea and sandwich. A waiter looked indignantly at him and told him that he could be served in the kitchen. Mr. Jones asked if he was refused accommodation where he was sitting, and was again told to go in the kitchen. He walked to the kitchen and found it too dirty to go in and refused to eat there.

"Later I returned with Mr. J. B. O'Neal," continued Mr. Jones, "and we seated ourselves in the dining room. The waitress informed Mr. O'Neal that he could be served, but if I wanted anything I would have to go to the kitchen."

There was a lively tilt between attorney Riley and lawyer Jones. An attempt was made to show that lawyer Jones was a suspicious person, which was the reason that he was refused.

This caused a smile to go over the lips of the audience. Lawyer Jones gave attorney Riley to understand that he was a gentleman.

Mr. Brunhaus took the stand and denied that he refused Mr. Jones on account of his color. Attorney Cook asked defendant if he knew Mr. Jones. He said no. He subsequently endeavored to make the witness state that he had read of Mr. Jones through the newspapers.

Judge Kimball ruled this out, by saying how could he recognize Mr. Jones had summoned Mr. O'Neal, but he had testified that he did not know him?

Col. Cook took exceptions to the Court rulings. Judge Kimball said it was immaterial to him what he took exception to, but he wanted counsel to understand that he would not allow a man to testify to a circumstance that he did not know anything about.

The exception was withdrawn. Both attorneys testified that O'Neal said he was drunk when he went to Brunhaus with Jones. Lawyer O'Neal stated that he told both attorneys fairy tales. They had summoned Mr. O'Neal, but he fooled them when he took the stand.

The case was resumed Thursday morning and District Attorney Jas. L. Pugh opened the case for the government. He made a most brilliant speech, full of eloquence, logic and sarcasm. Judge Kimball's rulings were fair and in keeping with the law.

Brunhaus was acquitted by the following jury: William S. Crown, 1027 4th street, N. E.; Henry B. Meyers, 2019 M street, N. W.; George W. Oren, 346 Folk street, Anacostia; Samuel Lee, 724 4th street, S. W.; W. S. Barker, 74 D street, S. W.; Ernest F. Allison, 1425 5th street, N. W.; Thomas Plunkett, 1373 Ohio avenue, N. W.; D. J. Collins, 1134 19th street, N. W.; Timothy Gannon, 17th and Mass. avenue, N. W.; Charles E. Gross, 14th and Park streets, N. W.; Algonon R. Chesney, 1026 6th street, N. W.; Wm. D. Humphries, 1534 14th street, N. W.

ABILITY RECOGNIZED.

Mr. Lewis B. Anderson, who has just graduated in law from the Kent College, Chicago, Ill., and who has made such a brilliant record, is one of our fellow townsmen. His father, Mr. Nelson Anderson, who has for a number of years been connected with the Bureau of Engraving and Printing is still here, and has a very interesting family. He has always enjoyed the compliments of being a man of brilliant attainments and we are glad that his son has followed in his much respected and venerable father.

The Chicago Conservator has the following to say: "The commencement exercises at Association Hall was of special interest at the Chicago College of Law. To the colored people, because in the graduating class was one colored man whose splendid work earned for him honorable mention in all the daily newspapers. Mr. Anderson was employed with the law firm of Prussing and McCulloch and by his kind and encouraging employers given every opportunity to make a thorough study of his chosen profession.

The result was most flattering. Mr. Anderson soon became recognized as one of the most careful, industrious members of his class. His theoretical work was supplemented by the large practice of his employers. He was in court every day and long before he was ready to take his diploma he was recognized as a capable and reliable practitioner before the bar. Few colored men have had so excellent an opportunity and it is most gratifying to his friends and employers that he has improved the opportunity so well."

Mr. Anderson will practice in Chicago, Ill.

CLEVELAND, O.

Some people make a study of grievances. An industrious person has no time to lose, looking on the dark side of life.

D. E.—Personal happiness that is worth having must be based on the right feeling, right doing, and generous impulses, thoughtfulness of others and forgetfulness of one's self.

E. F.—An impetuous or impulsive person is very apt to look too far ahead of himself, and by so doing pass by nearer objects which would be of great service to him.

A quarrelsome woman makes an unhappy home and a stubborn man makes a mean husband.

E. V.—Women who are fortunate enough to have silk-lined skirts and silk petticoats should not delight in jerking them up, when it is absolutely unnecessary. Fine underwear is appropriate, but I dislike to see it so flashy, as to attract attention.

Ella.—Don't be guilty of making a special effort after effect, but be ambitious, and do the duty that lies nearest you, then you will succeed.

L. M.—It is not necessary to leave home to look for work, when the same kind of work can be obtained here. Work need be ashamed of only when it is poorly done.

Nellie.—If there is anything I dislike, it is, to visit a home where the mother is a drudge, doing all the laborious work; while the lazy daughters sit and go about their ease. No self-respecting girl will allow her parents to support her, after they have reared her from infancy to womanhood.

Mother.—Old time names such as Martha, Maria or Susan are the latest for naming the babies.

I. T.—I don't approve of a girl corresponding with a man whom she has never seen. Personal appearance has a great deal to do with one's disposition and since we can only judge from looks, what one's disposition is, we should certainly see a person before entering into a correspondence.

Graduate.—There are yet ten graduates of class '96, of the Normal school to be appointed, after these have been taken care of, then it will be a who shall and who will, between those who did not get places of classes '94 and '95.

Lulu.—The Normal school class this year is composed of artists, poets, executionists, musicians, and every talent that goes to make up an interesting class.

A. B.—The woman who ignores her own brothers and sisters on the account of out side sentiment is very foolish. Some people manifest too much interest in others family affairs, which is for no good.

Mamie.—Difference of opinion is no cause of offense, but downright contradiction is a violation of good manners, still when one's knows a thing, I don't blame him for sticking to his opinion.

S. S.—Until we become more determined in all ideas and think more deeply into a matter before undertaking it, will our efforts in the right direction ever be in vain.

F. O.—Don't be sulky because you imagine yourself neglected or think your friend is in love with some other girl, simply because he is seen in the company of other ladies. The man who can only visit one lady's house cannot be thought very well of by others.

Teacher.—You should maintain your dignity and self-respect by practicing what you teach your scholars daily. Those whom you think are your inferiors are certainly your superiors, as far as good manners and self-respect are concerned.

It is not clever to find out one's family affairs by "pumping"; neither is it wise to confide in too many friends.

Hypocrites are not confined only to religion, they are everywhere; people claiming a culture they are far removed from, or teaching something they do not themselves understand, are certainly hypocrites of the deepest dye.

Jollie.—O, yes, I believe a woman should repair a man and for that reason should be studied well before marrying. Some men are so badly made up until they don't pay for repairing, of course he should be repaired or reformed before marriage, if not, think, it would be rather a difficult task afterwards.

Rusticator.—Wrappers are not just a thing for single ladies. Lawns and gingham, which can be had from eight to twelve cents and much higher, per yard, will make an appropriate morning dress, with plain skirts and waist with a ribbon or leather belt; when you are ready for the lawn or even a country morning drive. Keep the wrapper for your bed room.

The woman who understands the value of personal neatness, will certainly have to refuse some of her admirers, while her plainer sisters are not even without one offer.

Gertrude.—Don't be manish or masculine, for women will abhor you and men hate you.

Lily.—It is foolish to see you so jealous over that boy. No one wants him. He is not of age and doesn't know his own mind.

The fashion will be discussed next week, but you will not be amiss, if you have placed two small frills around the bottom of your french frandy.

SECRET ORDERS

PRO BONO PUBLICO.

WASHINGTON, D. C.,
May 27, 1897.

To the Masonic Fraternity and the public in general, the following is submitted in connection with the Ascension services of Palestine Commandery, No. 1, K. T.: Several months ago I met the Rev. J. Anderson Taylor at the corner of 15th and Pennsylvania avenue, n. w. After remarks, &c., I asked him if at any time should we require his services and church, would he be pleased to serve us. About a month ago Palestine Commandery, No. 1, K. T., appointed a committee on Observance of Ascension. The committee waited on Brother Taylor, and he said that he would preach the sermon for the occasion. As soon as the news got out, committees from the opposite faction, (Virginia avenue and 5th street, s. e.) commenced a series of bull-dozing. They harassed Brother Taylor right and left. Several days after the funeral of Rev. Ed. Willis, I ran across the Rev. Taylor, who was then coming away from the funeral at Willis' church, he was with company and I requested him to excuse himself for a moment, which he did, and I asked if everything would be all right for Ascension. He replied that he had told the Committee that everything was all right and when he gave his word it was his bond. These remarks were made at E and 19th streets, n. w. By the time I reached G and 20th streets, n. w., the Rev. Taylor was then making toward the avenue. After more remarks he told me that parties from the other side had been after him not to preach, and that he had received a letter from some of the members of Palestine, but that when he gave his word it was his bond. The design of services, &c., was then printed and publications made in the several papers of the District of Columbia. Towards the last, the Rev. Taylor stopped by the place of Brother J. H. McDowell, 15th and L. and stated in the presence of witnesses that he would preach the sermon. If it was the last act he did in Shiloh Church. Sunday before the Ascension, he gave it out from the pulpit, by saying that he was there to preach to all organizations and they were welcome to his church. The members of Palestine made themselves easy. And behold! on the morning of the 26th of May, Brother Taylor called on Brother McDowell and stated to him that six committees had been to him and also P. G. M., S. R. Watts, M. D., (33rd member of the Jackson Faction) and owing to the manner, that he was worried about the matter, that it was impossible for him to preach, and for us to let the services go on and place whoever we desired in the pulpit. And behold! on the eve of May 27 Brother Taylor went to the Metropolitan church, ascended the pulpit and made remarks to the opposite faction. Last Ascension of 1896, were invited to go out with Simon Commandery, No. 1, K. T., for the purpose of going to the house of God to offer up our devotions. We were grossly insulted and not allowed to fall in. This year we go out under our own standard and not theirs, or Mount Calvary Commandery either. And this same element enters the house of God, compels the minister to leave the pulpit and made him eat his own words, and then call themselves Christian Knight Templers and Masons. If any Mason can show me where there is anything in Masonry that compels the Order to enter our politics, our religion, or our private or civil affairs whatever they may be; I will eat my hat. And yet these good Christians, courteous and magnanimous Sir Knights and Masons (in name only) of Virginia avenue and 5th street, s. e., can enter the house of God and on the occasion of one of the most sacred occasions, viz: the observance of the Ascension of the Great Emanuel, for the purpose of revenge. God being more powerful than the devil; we simply went into our own lines and brought forth some of our ministers, who are not afraid to preach the word of God. So the Rev. and Sir Knight, Peter Lucas, 33rd, assisted by the Rev. and Sir Knight J. W. Gaines, 32nd, assisted by Sir J. M. Washington, 32nd, Prelate, performed the ceremonies. I will state that we have ministers to burn; we had another one in our line, waiting for a chance to be brought forth. Among the prominent Masons of the opposite faction present in the church we noticed; P. G. M., S. R. Watts, M. D., 33rd, P. G. M., R. H. Gleaves, 33rd, and F. H. Cozzens, 33rd, (of the Jackson Supreme Council.) We don't blame Brother J. Anderson Taylor, on the contrary, he has our sympathy. This is the second public disgraceful affair that has happened upon sacred occasions by Masons. To the Sir Knights, who participated, you did well, look well, and marched well. The thanks of the Command are extended to Sirs Knights W. P. Gray, 33rd, Rev. P. Lucas, 33rd, Rev. J. W. Gaines, 33rd, Rev. Washington, 32nd, and Sir Knight Waller for special services rendered, and the Committee of Arrangements, &c. We will now see what next year will bring and to the article which appeared in last week's American—this is the reason why we are handicapped in our labor as Masons for its advancements in this country among negro Masons.
